

Question: I love this watch. It's been with me all over the world, from Istanbul to Shanghai to Macau. I wear it with suits quite a lot. My boss liked it too. I remember wearing it when she died. What is her successor's name?

Solution: To solve this, I first went ahead and googled "Istanbul to Shanghai to Macau" (in double quotes). We get a result about the movie skyfall, and everything else in the question connects. Now just google the name of the successor for the answer.
